

Juiced TV Privacy Policy.

Juiced TV recognises and respects the importance of maintaining the privacy of patients, families and special guests participating in Juiced TV experiences. As a result, Juiced TV has established a “Privacy Policy” that describes what information we collect, why we gather certain information, how it is collected and what it is used for.

Juiced TV will only gather personal information with consent from the patients parents &/or carer at the time of filming. All permission is consented prior to participation in Juiced TV, as stipulated in the patient talent release and media release forms.

This policy describes why we gather patient, family, special guests and customer information, what information we collect, how we collect it, what we use the information for and how you can instruct us if you prefer to limit the use of any given information.

Since its inception, Juiced TV has consistently provided patients and their families with the highest quality patient entertainment initiative.

Juiced TV captures your personal data for the purposes of adhering to our legal and occupational health and safety policies and procedures, and to keep our ‘stars’, special guests, hospital and broader community and fans up to date with all of the latest and greatest news stories happening with Juiced TV.

What information do we gather?

When personal details are provided, we collect the following information: the talent first name, the talent last name, the talent gender, the talents date of filming, episode number the talent participates in, the segment name the talent participates in, the episode details the talent is involved in, the conditions of the talent (patient/sibling/special guest) and any other special considerations, the talents interests, the parent or carers email address, the parent or carers first name, the parent or carers contact number, the parent or carers postal address, and the details of film and photo consent at time of filming.

To comply with our legal and occupational health and safety regulations, the information gathered from our Media Release Forms is always stored safely, even if you choose to unsubscribe from Juiced TV email correspondence. Juiced TV is compliant with all email marketing privacy rules and regulations.

How we use the information we collect about you.

We use the information collected to administer the best Juiced TV experience, and to keep our patient talent, special guests and community fans up to date with special news, offers and event invites from Juiced TV.

How to limit the use of your information.

If you prefer not to receive any product information and promotional mailings/emails from Juiced TV based on information you provided to Juiced TV staff, please email us your request at: hello@juicedtv.com.au including your mailing address or write to:
